

Cengage Adjunct Faculty Advocate Grant

Purpose of award

- This grant is intended to assist in defraying expenses to the NADE conference.
- The grant is sponsored by Cengage Learning to support the professional development of adjunct faculty.

Definition of an adjunct instructor

- An instructor who is employed on a part-time basis with an institution of higher education

Criteria for evaluation

- Current employment as an educator in a developmental education program

Special features

- $1,500 grant to help defray travel and lodging costs associated with NADE Conference attendance (Funding will be provided before the conference to assist with NADE Conference expenses, including conference registration, travel and lodging.)
- One-year NADE membership (included in conference registration)
- Up to six individual grants may be awarded per year

Directions for application

- Name of employing institution
- Title of teaching position(s)
- Two letters of support from supervisors or colleagues
- See the Awards page on the NADE website for specific requirements for submission of application packet to the Awards Committee chair.

