

Hunter R. Boylan

Outstanding Research/Publication Award

Appendix Y-6

Purpose of award

This award recognizes recently completed non-thesis/dissertation research by a NADE member that contributes to the field of Developmental Education.

Criteria for evaluation

- NADE member
- Significance of research to the field of Developmental Education
- Letter of support

Award

- $500 stipend (to be shared if more than one person was involved with the research project)
- Invitation to present at following year's NADE conference

Directions for application:

- Research abstract summarizing the significance of research findings or publication to the field of Developmental Education.
- An electronic copy of the research document or article.
- A letter of support
- See NADE website for specific requirements for submission of application packet to the Awards Committee Chair.

Award Honoree

This award honors Dr. Hunter Boylan's lifetime contribution of research and scholarly publications in the field of Developmental Education. He is currently a faculty member in the School of Education at Appalachian State University in Boone, NC, and the Executive Director of the National Center for Developmental Education. He is one of the founders of NADE and of the Council of Learning Assistance and Developmental Education Associations (CLADEA) and served as president of NADE from 1981 to 1983.