

Maxine Elmont Award for Outstanding Alumnus of a Career Associate Program

Purpose of award

This award recognizes an alumnus of a career program who has distinguished himself/herself in an educational career and other areas of life.

Criteria for evaluation

- completion of two developmental courses
- earned a degree in a Career Associate Program
- outstanding accomplishments outside the classroom in a career setting

Special features

- $500 stipend
- one night's accommodations provided by NADE at the conference hotel the year award is presented
- fee waiver for the NADE basic conference registration for conference the year the award is presented
- 3-5 minutes to speak at a conference plenary session

Directions for application

- Letter of nomination that explains specific developmental classes taken and the nominee's further educational and/or career accomplishments (1-2 pages).
- One or two letters of endorsement from developmental and other college faculty (1 page each).
- One or two letters of reference from current work supervisor and/or community leader (1 page each)
- nominee's resume
- See Appendix W or NADE website for specific requirements for submission of application packet to the Awards Committee Chair..

Award honoree

Maxine Elmont, Ed.D., is a veteran educator and longtime Chair of NADE's Workforce Development SPIN. She is a Professor of Social Sciences and Professional Studies at Massachusetts Bay Community College. In addition, she is a NADE award winner and a life-time NADE Chapter member of LAANE.