

NADE Outstanding Proposed Research Award

Purpose of award

This award supports future non-thesis or dissertation research or research in progress by a NADE member.

Criteria for evaluation

- NADE membership
- Significance to the field of developmental education
- Theoretical/research basis
- Rationale for the study
- Theoretical basis and description of research methodology
- Projected applicability of results
- Quality of written presentation
- Projected timeline

Special features

- $500 stipend (to be shared if more than one person is involved in the project)
- Invitation to present at NADE conference as soon as the research project has been completed

Directions for application

- Prepare a copy of the research abstract that describes all the award criteria (maximum of 15 double-spaced, typewritten pages)
- In addition to the abstract, include a title page and all references for the research
- No identification of author or author's employing institution should appear except on the cover page as described in the General Application Procedures
- See the Awards page on the NADE website for specific requirements for submission of application packet to the Awards Committee chair.